

First National Bank OF OPP, ALABAMA Opens Trust Department

We take pleasure in announcing to our friends and customers that this bank has been granted permission, by the Federal Reserve Board of Washington, to open a TRUST DEPARTMENT and we are permitted to act in the following capacities for our customers and friends.

Trustee, Executor, Administrator, Guardian of Estates, Registrar of Stocks and Bonds, Assignee, Receiver, Committee of Estates of Lunatics, or in any other fiduciary capacity in which any bank, trust company or corporation can act under the laws of the State of Alabama.

Many of our patrons have asked us to serve in the in the capacity of Executors and Administrators of their estates and it is for this purpose that we are opening our TRUST DEPARTMENT.

To any of our customers or friends who desire this bank appointed Administrator, Executor, or Guardian of Estates, we tender our service promising to give these estates the same careful attention given all business entrusted to our care.

It is of distinct advantage to you to have this bank named as Executor or Administrator of your estate for the following reasons:

FIRST—This bank will be in existence many, many, years after your death and the carrying out of your Will does not depend on the life, death or good fortune of a friend or relative.

SECOND—In having this bank appointed Administrator or Executor of your estate, the entire Capital, Surplus and Profits of this bank, aggregating $300,000.00, is a bulwark of safety and protection to your heirs and loved ones. In other words, the assets of this bank is ample security to assure you that each and every provision of your Will will be carried out in accordance with your desires.

THIRD—If this bank is designated as your Administrator or Executor your wife and children, who are possibly inexperienced in business, will not have this great care and responsibility to shoulder.

FOURTH—If this bank is named Executor or Administrator of your estate it is not necessary for your family to depend on any relatives or friends to look after your estate and who often times are not capable of managing an estate.

THIS TRUST DEPARTMENT WILL BE UNDER THE DIRECT CHARGE AND CONTROL OF C. W. MIZELL, TRUST OFFICER, WHO IS ALSO PRESIDENT OF THIS BANK.

We invite our friends and customers to come in the bank and discuss freely with us the question of their estate and we will be glad to give you the benefit of our advices as to the working of your Will and assist you in every way possible in having your estate left in a way satisfactory to you.

We appreciate the confidence shown in this bank by our patrons and in opening this TRUST DEPARTMENT we are endeavoring to continue the high grade of service rendered our customers and friends for the past 22 years.

BAPTIST REVIVAL CLOSED SUN-DAY NIGHT; MANY MEM-BERS SECURED.

Baptist Revival, which has been in progress at the First Baptist Church for the past two weeks, successfully came to a close Sunday night. Large congregations taxed the seating capacity of the church each night, and many interest was manifested throughout.

More than 70 new additions were made to the church, and of this number 37 were converts. Baptism services were held all along during the meeting, and the last service of this nature will be held next Sunday night.

Rev. P. C. Barkley, of Lakeland, Fla., did the preaching, and all his services were well attended. His method of presentation was forcible, and he at all times held the attention of his congregation by his eloquence of speech.

The song service was led by C. W. Fry, of Atlanta, who proved himself a skillful leader and organizer. His "Sunshine" and "Booster" choirs were bright features of the meeting.

This revival was in all respects one of the best ever attempted by the Baptists. The most spiritual good is expected to come from the many messages in song and from the pulpit given out during two-weeks meeting.

MILDRED DAVIS PLAYS AT THEATRE THIS WEEK

Mildred Davis, that vivacious young screen actress who formerly played opposite Harry Liedtke in the "Million Dollar Murders," made her first appearance at the Elba Theatre Wednesday and Thursday nights, June 29-30, in a picture all her own, "Too Many Crooks," starring Miss Dorothy Lamour.

THE NUISANCE TAXES.

Commendation is due the representatives from Coffee and other counties in this section for their vote
on nuisance taxes in the revenue bill.

Among those who have voted against the taxes are Branson, of Coffee, Baldwin, of Covington, Sanders, of Pike, Moxley, of Crenshaw, Ward, of Greene, and Tompkins, of Houston,
the last named having led the fight against the taxes.

We are particularly sure that most of these gentlemen in their campaigns for election promised to vote as they have voted. Logically they would appear to deserve no special praise
for remembering their promises, but
so many people have had memories
about promises that officers who remember the promises they made to get in and keep them are recipients
of thanks from their constituents.

What is a nuisance tax? Many people have asked this question in the last few days. It is a tax that not only takes some money, but the burden of paying or collecting, or both,
is troublesome to an extent out
of proportion to the amount of the tax. The keeping of records and making reports by the small storekeepers and the trouble of paying six cents for a piece of tobacco made to sell for a nickel, illustrate some of the nuisance features said to be in prospect with the new revenue bill.

Some of the opponents of the revenue bill believe that it will be so strong in the Senate, while others think that it will be stronger in the Senate than in the House. Some of the newspaper comment on the why and wherefore of the situation is very strongly condemnatory. So far as we have noticed there is little if any press or other praise for the bill.

The "Penny Wise" foolish
always runs purchasing cheap,
inferior glasses. He is in reality a fool.

Inferior glasses injure the sight, and this is evident in the same at the same time and place. But it is to be understood that the penny wise plan is not a bad one.

My glasses assure comfortable, normal earning power, at prices well within reason.

BILL TO PREVENT "CROP JUMPING" FRAMED BY BRUNSON.

be denied to a fee of $100.00. He may demand from the person, firm or corporation to whom he delivers said bond and the sheriff may hold said bond until this fee has been paid.

Misdemeanor Fine.

In case of a misdemeanor, member of any firm or agent of any corporation, who has undertaken the planting and growing, or assumed the duty of cultivating a crop or crops and who deserts such property, and who is guilty of a misdeemeanor, a fine on conviction shall be fined not less than two hundred dollars and not more than five hundred dollars.

"Section 4. That the amendment of a bill to prohibit crop or crops of any person, member of any firm, or agent of any corporation, who has undertaken the duty of planting and cultivating or of cultivating said crop or crops, and who has assumed the duty of holding or keeping the grain, notes or bonds, as prescribed in the preceding section, shall be prima facie evidence of the intention to injure or defraud regardless of whether or not there is a written, verbal or implied contract to plant and cultivate or cultivate a crop or crops, and regardless of whether or not there is any debt owing between the person, member of a firm or agent of a corporation, who has undertaken the duty of planting and cultivating a crop or crops on the one part, and the person, firm or corporation, who owns an interest in or holds a valid lien against said crop or crops on the other part. Provided, however, that the amendment, charged with the description of a crop or crops shall be precluded from or denied the right of testifying as to his intentions or the cause of him abandoning said crop or crops.

"Section 5. And we, please, assure you, section of this act shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, such holding shall not affect any other word, phrase, sentence or section of this act which is not in and of itself invalid or unconstitutional.

"Section 6. All laws in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby expressly repealed.

Those who stand by the provisions of this bill claim that it will stand the test of the courts.

What This Diploma Means To The Women Of This Section

FIRST--

THIRD--

It means that the women of Elba and this section may receive at this corset department the authoritative advice of a highly trained corset expert. This service places you under no obligation.

The new Season's Fashions ask for a natural graceful figure that can only be attained by the most careful corseting. This subtle relation between Gossards and the new mode can be convincingly demonstrated by our corset expert.

SECOND-

FOURTH

Our graduate Corsetiere is not only specially trained in all branches of corset fitting, but has made a careful study of the prevailing fashions in all branches of women's apparel.

A special course in medical fittings enables her to give competent attention to any special corseting which a physician may prescribe. She will serve you at the department, at the doctor's office or at your home.

FIFTH--

This diploma assures the women of this section that they will find at this corset department that complete understanding of modern, hygienic corsetry that guarantees them the ideal proportions of their figure types, with priceless comfort and safeguarded health.
